

Annotation

Theme of graduate work:
A social management as a mechanism to minimize the potential for conflicts in youth sphere
Author: Zhukovich J.V.

Keywords: social management, conflict, conflict resolution, youth sphere, minimize the potential for conflict, institutional methods, government influence on youth conflicts, non-institutional methods, influence of society on youth conflict.

Topicality of selected theme is confirmed by:

- increase of the government's interest in minimizing conflicts in the youth sphere;
- minimizing the potential for conflict helps prevent the occurrence of conflicts in the youth sphere;
- to date methods and forms of social control are diverse Aim of graduate work is to establish the extent of the influence of social control to solve the problems and minimize the destructive function of conflicts faced by young people in the process of life.

Problems, designated in graduate work:

- to explore modern approaches to the definition of youth;
- to identify the causes of conflict among youth and ways to minimize their negative influence on the socialization of young people;
- to identify characteristics of the social management among the youth;
- to determine the cause-and-effect relationships in institutional forms of social governance;
- to explore mechanism of the influence of public organizations on the socialization of young people in order to minimize the potential of conflict.

Theoretical value. Allocation of the main problems in youth sphere, consideration of the social nature of the settlement as a mechanism of influencing the potential for conflict from the perspective of different positions.

Practical value. Results of the study may be valuable in achieving positive relationships between governmental organizations, non-governmental organizations and representatives of youth social demographic groups.

After research there was found out that conflict in the youth sphere is important part of political and public life, which are difficult to resolve completely. Therefore it is necessary to minimize the potential for conflict and to prevent conflicts.

Our recommendations are:

- use theoretical experience of academics in developing legislation;
- in program design must take into account the financial circumstances of every region of Russia;
- in program design must take into account the facts of the multinational and multicultural population of every region of Russia;
- exert control over public organizations should without violating the constitution of the Russian Federation;
- should increase the level of trust of young people to government and public forms of social control.