

SUMMARY

Graduate work on the subject:
«Features of the settlement of conflicts in the family courts of the Russian Federation»
Author: MZ Lamerdonova
Pp. 68, bibliographer. refs. 68.

Key words: family, family conflict, regulations, Family law, the mediator. Relevance of the research topic. Under current conditions, the theme of family conflict becomes particularly relevant. Family structure as experiencing crisis. Changes in family influence entail the transformation of interpersonal relations of spouses, parent-child relations, relations between generations.

The purpose of this work is to study the exhaust features family conflict settlement in the courts of the Russian Federation. To achieve this goal requires permission from the following tasks: -Define the concept and essence of the family, family conflicts -Analyze the regulations governing family relations in the Russian Federation -Investigate the features of family conflict resolution in the courts of the Russian Federation Procedure is to investigate the pre-trial settlement of family conflicts in the Russian Federation

Theoretical and practical significance of the study. Is to further the development and concretization of some key methods of settling family disputes. Materials research and its findings may be useful to use mediators, psychologists, conflict, lawyers, etc. Results of the study. Investigation of the structure of pre-trial and judicial settlement of family disputes. Pre-trial settlement more effectively in the resolution of family conflicts. Recommendations. Materials research and its findings may be useful to use mediators, psychologists, conflict, lawyers, etc.